

NEW CERTIFICATION

EGEA – EUROPEAN GARAGE EQUIPMENT ASSOCIATION

ECOTECHNICS

JULY 2018

Snap-on Climate Solutions obtained the EGEA Quality Label for the machine ECK4000 working with refrigerant HFO1234yf.

EGEA

European Garage and test Equipment Association - is the European association and political representative in Brussels of the manufacturers of tools and equipment for the repair, servicing and technical inspection of vehicles, as an integral part of supporting the automotive industrial value chain. Some national Egea associated are: AICA (Italy), ASA (Germany), GEA (UK) ecc.

OBJECTIVE

- Support the automotive industry
- Achieve a high level of quality for products and test procedures
- Uphold stringent safety rules,
- Create common rules in the design, manufacturing, installation, servicing and operation of garage and test equipment

Working Group 9 :

- Defined on 2011 with the purpose to create technical specification at European level for recovery and recharging equipment for refrigerant HFO1234yf; composed by expertise of A/C field.
- Ecotechnics/SCS participated to this working group with 1 delegate
- Specification released during 2017 together with the «quality EGEA label»
- The 'EGEA Label' ensures the quality and functionality for professional garage equipment products to enable workshops to buy with confidence from manufacturers committed to professional, productive and reliable products that provide the right equipment for the job.

The Label

