Competence & Know How

ECOTECHNICS

SIMPLY EFFICIENT

Autumn Training calendar

HANDS
ON-LINE
TRAINING

Training reality on-line.

The online trainings represent an opportunity of excellent effectiveness: optimization of the time spent and perfect cost-benefit ratio without geographical distances. Not only in the Sales & Marketing areas. Even courses for technicians are highly efficient thanks to the simultaneous use of a video camera. Small details can be viewed live and allow the trainer to explain in detail.

Please find the calendar and related Zoom-links for your participation on our next Training sessions in Autumn. A successive Spring calendar will follow promptly.

A) The new Flushing Kit and the Gas Analyser

- presentation of the new Flushing Kit AEK102-N21 and the Gas Analyser KIT.GAS
- Installation, connection A/C Station, use and work flow
- Handling of bypasses and demonstration of the flushing processes

B) Refresh your specific basic know how

- A/C system principles and A/C Station tasks
- Range differentiation, standard features and options
- Specific theme insights: Hybrid, Analyser, Containers, Maintenance

C) AC-Service24 – online service 24h, global, fast, competent

- Insights in Headquarters organization of After Sales customer service
- Account management
- Machine documents, software and database updates, support requests

All sessions will be held in English language. Summary slides will be available for participants. Previous confirmation of participation by e-mail to ACService24@snapon.com is very welcome.

Customized Training sessions on request.

Further to these planned Training sessions, we're available to organize personal sessions. To define place (our headquarters, your company or on-line), content, language and timing just ask ACService24@snapon.com

Save the date and participate with a click

Always on Thursday from 14.00 to 15.00 pm Italy time
